A wise ruler would rather preserve peace than gain victory; because he knows that even the most successful war leaves nations generally more poor, and always more profligate than it found them. There are real evils that cannot be brought into a list of indemnities, and the demoralising influence of war is not amongst the least of them.—Colton

Father and Son Tradition

Fortunate is the Lodge in which the father and son tradition is a strong one, and there are many such lodges in New Zealand.

We are not supposed to talk a great deal to our families about what goes on inside the lodge room; but the general nature of our activities is a matter of some interest to all our near relations. The young man who sees his father go off for an evening's occupation which obviously makes him happy and which he enjoys will take note that Masonic pursuits have their appeal. If he becomes aware that his mother also approves he will notch up a further favourable impression. He does not need to know a great deal of what it is all about unless his curiosity becomes aroused and impels him to ask questions: from that point the way is prescribed and clear.

During the years that Freemasonry has been in operation in this country there has been room for several generations of Craftsmen to be initiated in the same lodge, and it is not very unusual for a man to have his father and his grandfather both present at his initiation; no doubt this has happened at times on the occasion of his installation.

Of all institutions the Craft is surely one of those which most understands the value of tradition, and the kind of tradition that is built up in a lodge by father-and-son membership is one of the strongest and most valuable.

The desire to have one's son as a Masonic Brother should lead no one into the disobedience of solicitation. The pride a father experiences in his son's initiation is a very real pride, it would be diminished if the father knew that his son's application had come forward because of some pressure or direction on his own part. There can be no doubt but that he would feel some slight sense of shame when he heard the W.M. question the Candidate on the motives which had impelled his son to seek membership of the Order. Far better to wait and experience the satisfaction and happiness to the full; or perhaps never to experience it, but to realise that one had not steered one's son into a course from the pursuit of which he derived less than he should. The Freemason, no matter what his family background, must become a Freemason of his own free will and accord.

It is not only the father who derives satisfaction from seeing his son accept the Obligations of the Craft and the traditional disciplines to which Freemasons willingly submit themselves. There is room for the son to be proud of his father's achievements; his advances made and responsibilities discharged in that private man's world where what happens is not reported in the public press nor broadcast through the loudspeaker, but recorded only in the minds of one's fellows.

Over many years past this journal has included from time to time in its pages accounts of unusual ceremonies, and the Proceedings of overseas Grand Lodges not infrequently record instances of several members of a family being present at a ceremony where a son installs his father as W.M., where three blood brothers are Master and Wardens of the same lodge at the same time, or there is some similar circumstance which reinforces the normal Masonic bond with family sentiment.

Standards of behaviour and details of religious belief do change from time to time. There are few absolutes, and much is determined by each generation for itself and for its own members. The Craft insists very firmly on a few tenets; where there is room for individual difference the Craft respects but does not insist at all. This is why Freemasonry in an institution where monarchist can be at ease with republican; where Christian Mohammedan and Jew can laugh and be happy together; and it is no less a reason why men separated widely by years and differences of outlook arising from the one being the parent of the other can meet on the level and part on the square. And always, so mote it be.

When Chapter was resumed at 7 p.m. the fine Masonic Hall at Browns Bay was scarcely large enough to accommodate the very large number of Companions who attended. The new Chapter was constituted in solemn form and in most impressive manner by The First Grand Principal, the elements being presented by M. Ex. Comps. Girling (corn), Burns (wine), Vialoux (oil) and Kusabs (salt). A most appropriate oration was delivered by R. Ex. Comp. H. A. Marks, G. Lec., whose wide knowledge of the Old Testament and of Jewish history well fitted him for the task.

The subsequent ceremony of Installation was performed in his usual competent and acceptable manner by R. Ex. Comp. E. H. Bradstreet, G. Supt.

The foundation Principals are Z, V.E. Comp W. H. Taggart; H. Ex. Comp. H. Wyatt; and J. Ex. Comp. S. R. Goudie. All are well known as Freemasons and as R. A. Companions in the Auckland area. Comp. Taggart has a record of long and faithful service both to his Lodge as Secretary of Lodge Browns' Bay No. 346 for 13 years and as Scribe E of Waitemata Chapter No. 72 for 7 years.

Regalia House*

The Chapter commences business with Thirty Three foundation members including seven present or past officers of Grand Chapter and five other P.Z.'s. Among these, senior Grand Chapter Officers are R. Ex. Comp. W. G. Webster, G. Scribe E, R. Ex. Comp. H. A. Marks, G. Lec and R. Ex. Comp. A. S. Oldham, P.G. Lec. A companion who has rendered long and continuous service to R.A. Masonry is V. Ex. Comp. W. F. C. Vine, P.G. Org. who was invested as Organist of The Chapter and who during the evening received a Forty-year Service Jewel from The Grand Scribe E. In a very eulogistic address, R. Ex. Comp. Webster detailed something of the great service that has been rendered, by Comp. Vine over a long period and in more than one Chapter.

Refectory proceedings were of a very high order. The First Grand Principal acknowledged the very warm welcome and the great support that had been tendered to him in the District and in a very fine address set the new Chapter off to an outstanding start. The toast to the First Principal was most capably handled by R. Ex. Comp. A. S. Oldham and the Second Principal, Comp. Wyatt, showed in his toast to the visitors that he will have much to offer the new Chapter.

Tiromoana has a fine home at Browns' Bay, a capable set of officers, an enthusiastic list of founders and a more than satisfactory supply of candidates in a rapidly developing area. An outstanding feature has been the manufacture or provision by the Companions and their wives of almost all the regalia and furniture required by the new Chapter. Waitemata and Rangitoto Chapters made generous gifts and other Auckland Chapters assisted. Gowns, crowns, Chapter curtains and other items were all made by the ladies and altogether gifts and donations exceeded all expectations.

The First Grand Principal expressed himself well satisfied that the chapter had prospects of a rosy and outstanding future.—J.P.G.

Enthusiasm is the genius of sincerity, and truth accomplishes no victories without it.—Bulwer Lytton.

Announcing a New Publication

THE UNLOCKED SECRET

By James Dewar

"Neither a Freemason nor a Roman Catholic, Mr Dewar wrote this book after an investigation for a BBC television documentary, and its illustrations, particularly those dealing with aspects of craft ritual, add authenticity to the volume.

"In his conclusions, Mr Dewar says that Freemasonry is capable of offering the best of all possible worlds."

Oration

Oration delivered at the Constitution and Dedication of the Tiromoana Chapter, No.105, at Browns Bay, Auckland, on Saturday, 6th May, 1967, by R. E. Comp. H. A. Marks, Grand Lecturer.

M. E. First Grand Principal and Companions all.

At the Meeting of Supreme Committee of the Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter of New Zealand, held in the Scinde Lodgeroom, Napier, on Thursday, March 9, a petition for the formation of a Chapter was presented. It was resolved that it be a recommendation to the Grand Principals that a Charter be issued under the name of "Tiromoana" and that the number be 105. The Grand Principals having concurred we may well designate that day as the birthday of this Chapter, which today we have constituted and dedicated to the service of the Most High.

As Freemasons we like to see something symbolical in all our actions, and to me the great symbolic or allegorical lesson of today's proceedings is the birth, dedication and life of Samuel, as recorded in the Volume of the Sacred Law.

We all know how after many years of married life a male child was born to Hannah and Elkanah, and that as a thanksgiving to the Most High Hannah gave the child to Eli the High Priest to train for a life of service to the Lord. Eli carried out his duties so faithfully that it was Samuel's statemanship which, overcoming his reluctance, guided the people in the transition from anarchy to monarchy, and by the election of David in Saul's lifetime ensured the succession.

This system of giving the firstborn child to the service of the Most High, if it happens to be a male, has been carried on through all generations even to this day in Orthodox Hebrew Congregations, where the firstborn child, if a male, must be redeemed on the thirty-first day after his birth. The father gives the child to the Cohen, or representative of the High Priest, and redeems him for fifteen shillings, that is five shekels or one hundred gerahs. It is then his responsibility to see that the infant is educated according to the law of Moses and of Israel, so that he may in due time take his place in the community and be of service to his Creator.

Now in the territory of the North Shore in the Auckland Masonic District two Chapters, Rangitoto and Waitemata have lived together for many years and at last saw fit to pray to Supreme Committee that they might be blessed with a child to assist them to carry on their Masonic work, which owing to the growth of the district had become very onerous. Their prayer having been answered, they have this day, as did Hannah and Elkanah, dedicated their young issue to the service of the Most High, and from this day onward it behoves every Charter member to do his utmost to further the interests of "Tiromoana No. 105"; for by their actions today they have taken the role of Eli and dedicated themselves to a life of service in the development and progress of this Chapter.

"For everything there is a season" says a somewhat cynical old professor of wisdom in ancient Israel. There is, he rather acutely insists, "a time to break down and a time to build up, a time to keep and a time to cast away." The Companions who have banded together to form this Chapter, Tiromoana No. 105, feel that "now is the time to keep and now the time to build." We have had our time of breaking down. In a sense that is wrong — for such a time is always with us, we have always to be ready to throw away the false; but in modern times there has been rather too much breaking down and throwing away. I am sure we all agree with our Companions, we have come to "a time to build up."

The first thing we need is a foundation stone. It would be very natural and reasonable to say that belief in the Most High was our foundation stone. That is though, >a mistake, curiously enough. We cannot build on a belief; we must not build on a belief in the True and Living God Most High, but on the Most High. Even that is not at all simple, because it is quite easy, being mere mortals, for us to doubt Him.

Our foundation stone, though not the building erected on it, must be a solid fact, given to us, not of our own invention or our ingenuity. If we use that kind of foundation our building will be no stronger than we are; we shall be like Atlas of old, carrying a world, and if we fall down, what then will happen to the whole superstructure?

No, we must have a solid foundation stone, one which we find ourselves and which our beloved Order so beautifully guides and leads us to; for it is the great "I am" who is the Keystone to the whole structure and whose pattern is so different from what it at first seems to be. For, strange as it may appear, our experience of the Most High is not of Him as a creator, but more as a Redeemer.

Whenever we find at work some saving grace, some redeeming feature, some cheering element in a life, in a situation, a comfort in a disaster, this is when we experience Him most and draw closer to Him; not very often as the mysterious Being who made the world according to fixed laws, some of which seem to our partial understanding sometimes hard and even cruel.

It is rather the hint or glimpses of steadfast love behind "Jab's" redeeming action which reveals Him. Israel of old felt this as they saw hope of deliverance from exile in Babylon, and recalled the ancient saga about their forefathers' deliverance — their redemption from slavery in However stern the Most High had been with here they saw His abiding love. This was how they knew, how they recognised His everlasting entity.

Other stones are needed in the building. A foundation stone is essential, but it needs other stones to complete it. There are a number of stones which have been broken down and thrown away — prayer, worship, sacraments, respect for parents, loyalty to employer, loyalty to employee, honesty, respect for woman, respect for man. No doubt these stones look very old fashioned. That might be the decision of some perhaps, but not of the Royal Arch Mason or indeed any Freemason, because it is this sort of stone which alone will fit a building which has the Almighty One as a foundation stone.

Try as we will — and often we do try — it is not really possible to fit the stones of an undisciplined selfish life on to the perfect foundation stone; but as Freemasons we are taught and know that knowledge grounded on accuracy, aided by labour and sustained by perseverance, will finally overcome all difficulties; and so we continue to polish these stones in the belief that they will eventually be accepted and fit into the structure.

"If it is now a time to build," it may seem rather as if we had been arguing that we have to rebuild on an old building, and we may well turn away from the task, because the old-fashioned does not attract us. I deliberately said "old fashioned" and not "square" or "grey." Grey sounds dismal, no one wishes to be that. As for "square" I should dearly like to be that. Square stones will fit the building well — they are solid and honest, reliable, fit for the expert craftsmen to try and to adjust their jewels upon. While no-one wishes to be "old-fashioned," in the sense of not trying to understand modern life, not trying to learn all about the wonderful things going on around us, something that was "fashioned, (made, shaped) in the olden time" (old-fashioned) might prove to be useful because it has already shown that it has stood the test of time.

It is you yourself who is wanted in the building, not someone you might pretend to be; nothing else will suffice, for it would be unreal, unfit for the structure, and like the imperfect stone eventually cast aside as unfitted for the edifice. The stones for this building must be real and solid, they must be our real selves, so they cannot very well be old-fashioned.

The other stones, the qualities of the new life (and it is a new, not an old-fashioned life, that we are called to) will have to be used too; love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control.

My Companions, like living stones be yourselves built into the spiritual, house we strive to erect this day; thus will the beauty of the whole superstructure be unveiled to your view and the essence of the Most High at last become comprehensible to you.

Apathy

An address by Bro. D. J. S. MILLAR, Delegate from Napier Masonic Trust to the Centennial Conference of the Royal Victorian Masonic Homes

January 1967

Apathy is defined in brief as a want of feeling; indifference to what appeals to feelings or interest. It is expressed in a "she'll be right" or "I couldn't care less" attitude. The way in which the word is often used in the craft is "not actively engaged, uncommitted".

The teachings of Freemasonry are moral. The claim that F.M. makes good men better, warrants serious consideration for this is a moral approach. It is significant that Websters first definition of "moral" is "characterised by excellence in what pertains to practice or conduct".

Can apathy be applied to morality? I suggest that the craft stands indicted if we are to accept that any member can suffer from a want of feeling for what concerns his conduct, or is indifferent to attaining some measure of excellence in his relationships. If such a man anywhere is a F.M., then those who proposed him were remiss; the lodge which initiated him is immoral. This I find hard to accept.

But I will agree that many brethren throughout our constitutions are indifferent to F.M. This may not be immoral but is certainly amoral. Will those of you who are members of Grand Lodge see these remarks through the eyes of one who is not in Grand Lodge and has no wish to attain such a position and hence is without status, yet is actively engaged as secretary to an incorporated society wholly based on Masonic aims and concerned with care of the aged, assisting the needy and who comes into contact with all levels of business and government and society.

About two years ago, a special Ministerial committee was engaged in investigating all aspects of care of the aged. The Chairman, at a public hearing, commented that "(Our) organisation was beyond reproach". This I accept is the public image of any Masonic organisation, be it Lodge or Trust or Association. Will this image continue its "beyond reproach" rating or is it already being eroded by apathy?

Let us examine some sources of apathy.

The enthusiasm with which a man joins the lodge and is exhorted in the N.E. Corner to give proper consideration to charity is seldom utilised. After the third degree, does not the member look around for the evidence of charitable activity—in a benevolent sense—and await calls on his purse? Do they eventuate as he thought they would? If not, is that his fault? I cannot blame the Mason whose aroused feelings of benevolence are subsequently anaesthetised by inactivity.

It seems to have become reasonably well established in New Zealand that each Lodge should contribute to the fund of benevolence to the extent of £1 per member. I feel that it is little enough, for it is from this pound that the fund grows, that pace is kept with inflation, that Grand Lodge can confidently maintain a liberal policy of annuities, bursaries and grants. But what of the man at the end of the line—the Mason who ultimately contributes this pound? Has he any sense of identification with the fund of benevolence, the capital of which is in excess of £800,000? Does he identify with the bursary granted to the son or daughter of a deceased member of his own lodge? Does he even know that a member or next of kin of his or a neighbouring lodge is in receipt of an annuity? No, he does not. He doesn't know where the money goes or where the capital is. Is this his fault? He has no sense of identification with what is being achieved through this fund. "They" administer it. "They" make decisions, and because "they" are Masons, it must be all right. But look at the apathy.

Brethren, unless a man has a sense of identification with benevolence, it becomes that objectionable thing "charity"—in the sense of "as cold as charity". How often have you had the experience of "Joe is in hospital and the kids need some clothes—can you contribute?" What can you do? You empty your pockets then and there for you are identified with a result.

An impersonal appeal, emanating from "they" for a noble purpose can appeal to them as members, but will it retain their interest?

Yes, I know that the accounts and disbursements can be obtained from the Book of Proceedings—but is it read by members? No, and it won't be. It is the book of "they"—remote, detached and the response to its production each year is what any advertising or sales manager would predict. It serves as a history. But who reads current history if he is part of it? One publication per annum can never qualify as a news media nor can it keep anyone in touch.

An aspect of benevolence common to many organisations today is that of responsibility. I premise that any proposal put before an organisation such as ours is a responsible proposal and worthy of support. But what of individual responsibility? Benevolent needs are today seen in wide and varied areas and what appeals to one will receive no attention from another. We cannot legislate emotions, and I find it difficult to see how, in respecting the individuality of the member, any lodge can make a "personal" appeal. Some are able to give of time but not of funds, others can give funds provided their time is left untouched. The last 40 years have seen such a spread of interest and growth of activity, that demands on time are usually fruitless. Furthermore, service clubs are actively seeking good works and they are organised to achieve results.

Another aspect of apathy arises from disillusion. The strength of a lodge is not only in its members but in its experience. It lies in the Master Masons and the Past Masters. Consciously, or unconsciously, the Master Mason may ask himself "Why should I try?" Look at the Past Masters whom I do not see at meetings. By the same token, how many of those attending and responsible ever ascertain why so and so no longer attends or moves to remedy the cause of that non-attendance. Once a lodge member feels that a brother is "pot hunting" or "title collecting" any approach is stillborn. Does it happen? I should frame the question, why does it happen in a moral, society?

Let one case of "title hunting" meet with success and the craft in that district has taken several retrograde steps. The "rank and file" of the craft are, I believe, far more sensitive to this problem than is realised. Insincerity is a communicable disease and when it spreads to the members, apathy is epidemic.

This is possibly the time you are asking who am I? May I word it, "what am I"?

I am a Master Mason who was initiated in March 1947. For over 10 years I have been Treasurer of my mother lodge and for almost the same period have been secretary of the administration controlling the building jointly owned by three lodges (in Napier). Ever since the Victoria Lodge had before it the desire to utilise its surplus funds for some worthwhile Masonic and charitable project I have been involved, both with the exploratory work and the activities that resulted in the formation of the Napier District Masonic Trust in 1961—a society incorporated under the provisions of The Charitable Trusts Act of 1957. I am the Trust Board's secretary,

This Trust is constituted from the seven craft lodges of the city of Napier, and the Borough of Taradale (population of the area approximately 30,000) and the membership of the lodges concerned is about 850. To date, the Trust has built 24 self-contained flats, each ideally suited to the needs of an elderly married couple. Land is being purchased for a further eight flats. An offer of £20,000 has been made to the Presbyterian Social Service Association, to launch a project of 60-70 cottages and hospital beds at a cost of some £180,000. The Trust has other ideas before it and is active in the field of assistance of an immediate and practical need. I stress the immediate and practical aid. Immediate is 20 minutes—or less. The Trust also sends a quarterly newsletter to the members of the contributing lodges.

Now why all this? Because although only a young Trust, we have pioneered in providing self-contained accommodation and it is significant that we are now considering leaving an area of care that other Masonic organisations or trusts are only just entering.

Why? Much of this thinking has resulted from our own experience, some good, some mediocre and some bitter. Action and inaction on the part of some, suggestions made and the experiences of others have given us a concentration of "know how". So in five years our Trust has an unmatched record—it has produced results that are today being emulated by other Trusts, both older and newer than ours. Did I hear someone ask "Where is the Grand Lodge in this?" A fair question. They have made a start with building four flats to gain experience, and have recently appointed a committee to investigate the work of trusts such as ours. There is a grave need for a common policy and approach.

It has already been stated that the M.M. is the numerical strength of the craft and so I ask you to look at him for a while. Many years ago my chairman, a Grand Lodge officer for reasons of Honoris Causa, commented, "It must be rather boring for a M.M.—he takes no part in the ceremony and watches the degrees being worked meeting after meeting". Fair comment. What happens to the M.M. after his third degree? I suggest that somewhere amongst all the words and charges, the sincerity—and insincerity—he senses there is a lot more. I cannot agree that it is the responsibility of the proposer and seconder to now launch the M.M. into some orbit of his own; even if they know how. For some months the candidate has been the responsibility of the lodge which too often now abandon him to his own resources whilst continuing to work with E.A.s and F.C.s. At this stage the absence of interest breeds apathy—yet there are many avenues of service available.

Do those on the ladder receive instruction in chairing meetings, handling finances, secretarial practice, business management, in making good men better? Can a business executive, a club committeeman, a service club member, be impressed by a worshipful master who is unable to chair his lodge? Or does this lead to frustration and frustration to apathy? If the M.M. seldom participate in the business of the lodge, where does the fault lie?

Does the Master tell his lodge what is happening in the lodge? Does Grand Lodge tell the Master or the members what is happening in the craft? Something is going on somewhere, worthy of note. Do those who are often referred to as floor members (derogatory term) or P.M.'s even receive a thumbnail sketch of those appointed to "high and exalted office?" Is a private kept in ignorance of his Colonel or his General? Does the army permit an apathetic private? If it did, the army would rot—from the top, not the bottom, and Freemasonry too numbers its membership by the tens of thousands.

I accept that all in authority in the craft will uphold the rights of all members of any rank. Any failure to do so will result in the charge of "undemocratic government". Democracy does not stand still. The brotherhood of man is an attainable objective. Because of the peculiar system of government that operates in the craft, prudence demands scrupulous avoidance of any suggestion of "high handedness".

The churches today are facing, as of old, the challenge of materialism. The churches role is, as I understand it, to teach spirituality, and that does not exclude, but rather includes, morality. The challenge to morality is also materialism, manifest in sensualism, including apathy.

In an age of computerised analyses, computerised calculation, global and instant communication, I suggest that no news is apathy, that failure to communicate—both ways—is apathy. The threats and challenges to F.M. are legion. Have Rotary, Lions, Jaycee more to offer than F.M? Some Masons I know say yes and point to their organisations speedy communication, challenging approaches, swift and practical actions.

Today's problems should not be met tomorrow—that's far too late. Today's problems should be met today. But to be moral about it, I say let the need, the problem, the apathy, never arise.

The remedy for apathy is undoubtedly the knowledge of yourself. By careful performance of the allotted task while it is yet day, apathy can find no residence in a Mason.

Not on the Program

You attended a Lodge meeting and you have many happy reflections.

The officers of the Lodge conducted the ritualistic work with efficiency, dignity and decorum. The reading of the minutes revealed the carefully detailed account of the proceedings of the previous meeting.

Then came the speaker. You may not remember everything the brother said in his address, but you do remember many of the thoughts he expressed, and you remember his sincerity and the excellent manner in which he delivered the address.

But there was also that feature of the meeting which was not on the program. It was the enthusiasm of the brother. There was special delight in seeing and talking with your brothers. There was the clear evidence of the spirit of Masonic brotherly love and kindness.

There was the warmth of men united by the most sacred ties. There was the message from the heart of every brother which went directly to your own heart.

So that which we cannot adequately describe, but which is an essential part of every Masonic meeting, that which is not of the prepared program, is always the part which we remember most vividly.

Chivalric Masonry

By J. R. Richardson, P.C.

The origin of Masonry is obscure. No one can state exactly how, when or whence it came.

Masonry is a composite evolution, a splendid example of the universal law of "Expansion of Ideas and Growth of Ideals." Its foundation and cornerstone are belief in God. Its mission is His adoration and service. Its superstructure and fulfillment are Brotherhood and the love of Man. It is religious, but not a religion; philosophic, but not a philosophy; ethical, but not wholly or exclusively a system of ethics; patriotic, but not political or partisan; always standing unchangeable for universal, civil and religious liberty with law. As Christianity is the celestial flower and golden fruitage of Judaism, so is Christian Masonic Knighthood the crowning glory and culmination of Masonry. It is in no sense a rival competitor or opponent of the Church, but rather it is her loyal - ally and devoted handmaid. Their relations are those of Ruth and Naomi: "Whither thou goest, I will go; and where thou lodgest, I will lodge; thy people shall be my people, and thy God, my God."

The Genesis of Masonic Degrees and Bodies was briefly as follows: Primarily, there was but one Degree of Masonic initiation. In time, this single Degree was enlarged and divided into three distinct Symbolic Degrees.

In a relatively short time, the Lodge created "Royal Arch Lodges," subject to itself, to confer the Capitular and Chivalric Degrees; later, separating them and changing the name to "Royal Arch Chapters" for the Capitular Degrees and "Commanderies of Knight Templars" for the Chivalric Degrees.

Templar Masonry is about two hundred years old. There is no probability, hardly even any possibility, that our modern Order of Christian Masonic Knighthood is directly connected with the ancient Order of Christian Knights whose name and date we proudly bear, whose valiant character and Christian virtues we emulate. Its birth however, is no less noble. No matter who first formulated its Ritual and ceremonies " and dubbed and created the first Masonic Knight Templar, it sprang spontaneously from the enraptured, if not inspired, souls of reverent and devout Christian Masons, who ardently desired to bring home to the hearts, consciences and daily lives of their brethren and fellowmen the celestial message of our blessed Emmanuel.

Very True

There are many Brethren who can recite our ritual from Alpha to Omega without the omission of a word or syllable, who are unconscious of the fact that behind the play of words lie concealed thoughts and meanings which invite our investigations and will repay us for our research. The demand of the hour is not for men who can recite the ritual, but for men who know what the ritual means, and who are willing to live its teachings in their daily lives and conduct.

Master Masons of Westminster Abbey

We walk around the exterior of Westminster Abbey and find new beauties at every turn, we pass through the great doors of the western portal or enter the triple doors of the northern transept to stand spellbound, impressed by the vision and the thought of all that it means. We know that the names of the Kings of England who reigned when this great cathedral was built and who ordered the work done, but we perhaps do not think of the Craftsmen whose minds saw the vision and whose skill wrought this wonder in stone for our eyes to admire.

The ancient structure that once stood on what was then an island in the Thames, but is now the mainland, passed away centuries ago. The legend of its consecration by St. Peter and a choir of angels still lives in story. Only the site of the early building remains. Henry III had the present choir, transept and part of the nave constructed, but much was left to be done by Henry VII, about two hundred years later. The latter had the chapel that bears his name built to hold his tomb and also had the nave finished, but the western towers were left to Sir Christopher Wren.

Professor Lethaby, in his book entitled Westminster Abbey and the King's Craftsmen, the Westminster Abbey volume of the Report of the Royal Commission on Historical Monuments, and Bro. W. J. Williams' article The King's Master Masons, in Ars Quatuor Coronatorum, have given us much valuable information as to the men who did the work on the Abbey. Henry III was on the throne of England from 1216 to 1272, and Master Henry is mentioned several times during this reign as Master of the King's Masons. The first time is in the Calendar of the Close Rolls for 1243, where a note is made of the gift of tunic and supertunic to Henry, Master of the Masons of the King. The Fabric Rolls of the Abbey show substantial payments to Master Henry, Mason. In the year 1250-51 Henry, Master of the Works, was ordered to hasten the marble work at Westminster. Nothing is known of Master Henry's place of birth, or the date, or where his body was placed when he passed away, but if he created this beautiful cathedral it, alone, is monument enough for anyone.

John of Gloucester is mentioned as the Master Mason of the King in the Close Rolls of 1253, where mention is made that a robe was granted to him in such. While there are a number of other grants from the King to him, this is the only one that connects him with the Abbey.

In the Westminster Abbey volume of the Report of the Royal Commission on Historical Monuments the names of those who rebuilt the nave are given as Robert Stowell from 1471, Thomas Redman in 1505, and Henry Redman in 1516.

While it is a matter of regret that we know so little of the men who created this wonderful cathedral, still it is interesting to learn something concerning their work.

Little is known of the work inside the Abbey, but Master Richard Crundale was in charge of the making of the exquisite tomb of Queen Eleanor, who died in 1290. H. St. John Hope, in an article, volume 65 of Archaeologia, wrote that Henry VI commanded John Thrisk, who was then his Master Mason, to mark out a place on the ground inside the Abbey for his tomb. This was done with some hard instrument and Canon Westlake, in his book on Westminster Abbey, informs us that the marks of the pick remain to this day. This King, however, was not buried here, but at Windsor.

When John Atte Greene was appointed Master Mason by Edward III in 1349, he was directed to hire as many masons, setters of stone, squarers of stone, tilers and other workmen as were needed.

In an article in Ars Quatuor Coronatorum, volume 43, are some few references of interest to the masonic work on the Abbey. In the year 1396, in a charter issued at Westminster may be found these words: latomos vocatos Freemasons. The term "lodge," as the name of the workroom, was used at Westminster in 1292, and in the Fabric Rolls it appears that in 1253 the masons recognised Feast Days as their holidays.

Westminster Abbey! Shrine and sanctuary! Enter the western portal late some afternoon while the rays of the setting sun stream through the windows to tint the vast nave with glory. There in front of you is the high altar where Monarchs of England have stood for consecration .before ascending the throne, there in the distance are memorials to those who have made the British Empire what it now is. All is hushed and still. Then the chants of the beautiful vesper service steal softly through the vast cathedral and offer a gentle benediction to the day, a requiescat in pace to the men who saw visions they later carved into the stone for us to admire today.

—S. H. Longley, The New Age.

Governor General Designate

Our Grand Master sent greetings to Governor General Designate

Dear Sir,—It will probably be of great interest to Free-Masons throughout New Zealand to know that Rt. Wor. Sir Arthur Porritt has been appointed as the next Governor General of New Zealand. Sir Arthur has always been very active in Freemasonry, and is a foundation member of New Zealand Lodge, working under the Constitution of the United Grand Lodge of England.

As Grand Master in New Zealand, I cabled congratulations to him on behalf of all Freemasons in this country, and was delighted to receive recently a letter in answer to that cable. Sir Arthur had asked me to convey his very sincere thanks to the New Zealand Brethren for their kindly thoughts, and I know of no better way of making this known to the Brethren in New Zealand than through the "Craftsman."

I would esteem it a favour, therefore, if you could give some small space in your journal to express his sentiments, and enclosed is a copy of the letter which I have referred to.

Yours faithfully,

J. A. REDWOOD.

Dear M. W. Grand Master.—I did greatly appreciate your cable of congratulations on my appointment as Governor General. I am sorry to have been so long replying.

As you can imagine, this has been a great delight to me and I am looking forward enormously to the experience. I hope, when I do arrive, it will not be long before I am able to see you personally.

I trust, when the occasion arises, you will convey my sincere thanks to the New Zealand brethren for their kind thought expressed through you.

Yours sincerely and fraternally,

ARTHUR PORRITT.

NORTHLAND

KAITAIA LODGE No. 361

Biennial Visit to LODGE TE ATATU No. 414

May 20th was the first of what will be the three outstanding days of our year. The other two will be the Provincial Grand Master's fraternal visit to Kaitaia in July and then the visit of Lodge Papakura, No. 56, led by Bro. Harry Toothill, in October.

May 20th was the occasion of Kaitaia Lodge's biennial visit to Lodge Te Atatu, No. 414, meeting at Henderson, and was the third biennial visit to this Lodge.

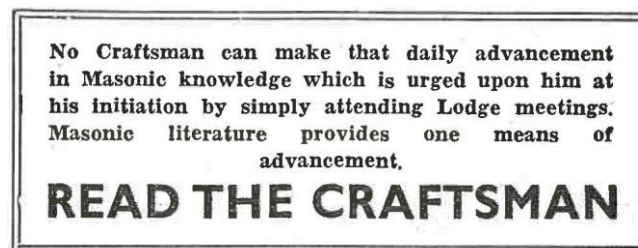

W. Bro. W. D. Fraser was accompanied by sixteen Brethren, including the candidate for the evening, Bro. V. T. S. Warren, when he was received by W. Bro. R. P. Thomas, Master of Lodge Te Atatu, No. 414. The preliminary formalities being completed W. Bro. Thomas handed the Gavel to W. Bro. Fraser and with it the control of the Lodge for the purpose of passing Bro. Warren to the Fellowcraft Degree, The Kaitaia Officers took their places with W. Bro. Geo. Walker as D.o.C., W. Bro. T. F. Walker, S. W., Bro. P. A. Laurent, J. W., Bro. W. A. McCabe, Chaplain, W. Bro. H. C. Teys, S. D., Bro. M. L. Jamieson, J. D. All these Brethren were the regular officers of Kaitaia Lodge with the exception of W. Bro. T. F. Walker who replaced the S. W., Bro. F. M. Francis, currently on holiday in Australia. Lodge Te Atatu kindly supplied the Inner Guard and the Tyler.

The ceremony of passing proceeded smoothly despite the (to Kaitaia) unfamiliar surroundings. A pleasing aspect was the manner in which those delivering charges responded to the larger Lodge-room. Every word was clearly heard in every part of the room. This is, unfortunately, not always so in the Kaitaia Lodge-room. The delivery of the Charges was well-nigh faultless from the putting of the test questions by W. Bro. Ron Brott, I. P. M., to the Charge after passing by W. Bro. Geo. Walker. The intermediate charges were given by Secrets, Bro. W. A. McCabe; Charge after Investiture, Bro. P. A. Laurent; South East Corner, Bro. M. L. Jamieson; Working Tools, W. Bro. H. C. Teys; and the 2nd degree Tracing Board by Bro. Chas. M. Haybittle after an absence from the scene for several years.

The Masters wisely decided to dispense with the usual "break-off" and in consequence members and visitors were able to relax for 21/2 hours in the refectory. The happy atmosphere and Te Atatu's arrangements for the visitors' comfort left nothing to be desired from the delightful supper to the wealth of high quality entertainment. It might here be mentioned that the entertainment left Bro. McCabe's (Bro. McCabe is responsible for entertainment in Kaitaia Lodge) eyes popping.

*Tracing Boards available on order from
Regalia House*

After honouring the two formal toasts the Visitors' Toast was replied to by W. Bro. H. W. Toothili, an ex-member and Organist of Kaitaia Lodge and now Master of Papakura Lodge, No. 56, W. Bro. A. C. D. Werner, Master of Lodge Mangonui, No. 78, who accompanied the Brethren on their visit, and finally by W. Bro. W. D. Fraser whose broad Scots was appreciated by the Scots Members of Te Atatu and the visitors alike.

Those who were privileged to make the four hundred mile return trip were well rewarded not only by furthering the already friendly relations which exist between the two Lodges but also because it was almost a re-union meeting with many members of Kaitaia Lodge who now live in Auckland and its environs.

The inimitable' Cliff Hawkes, one time Master and ex-D.o.C. of Kaitaia Lodge was the first on the scene, followed closely by Tom Sumerville, ex Treasurer, looking somewhat slimmer but still with the same friendly smile. The three Shirleys, father and sons, Bert, Past Master and ex-D.o.C., and Stewart, ex Senior Steward, came down from Wellsford, and Russell of Tracing Board fame took time off from his business in New Lynn to meet his old friends. W. Bro. Cedric Watson's son, Hilary, who was passed in Kaitaia Lodge some years ago, came along to apologise for the absence of his father who was indisposed.

In addition to these and other old friends members renewed their acquaintance with members from Lodges Titirangi, Erehwon, Papakura, Wayfarers, and Eden.

Altogether it was a memorable visit and our Junior Warden, Bro. P. A. Laurent, is looking forward to leading another party to the City in 1969.

AUCKLAND MASONIC GOLF TOURNAMENT

A record entry of 292 players from 56 Lodges turned out for the Eighth Annual Golf Tournament held in Auckland on 1 May 1967, with brethren from all constitutions competing. This entry is thought to be the biggest received for a one-day tournament ever held in New Zealand.

The tournament was a four ball best ball stableford, 18 hole, and was held in dry but cloudy weather. The contest was held simultaneously at the Titirangi, Akarana and Maungakiekie Golf Clubs, and the winners were found by the best scores irrespective of course.

The contest was won by Bros. Bob Strachan and Steve Young (Lodge Oliver Nicholson No. 326) with 46 points, while second place went to Bros. Ian Farmer and Doug. Over (Lodge Te Atatu No. 414). The M.W. the Grand Master, M.W. Bro. J. A. Redwood, was again a competitor, having the record of having played in all tournaments to date.

A very enjoyable social hour was held after the contest at the Titirangi Clubhouse, where the presentation of the prizes was made by R.W. Bro. C. A. Rowe (Scotch Constitution) and Deputy Chairman, Roskill Masonic Village.

The proceeds of the tournament of £300 was handed to the chairman of the Northern Masonic Trust Board (M.W. Bro. J. A. Redwood) to go towards the funds of the Masonic Village.

From the ten bowling tournaments and eight golf tournaments held in Auckland in recent years the sum of £6,050 has been handed over to Masonic charities.—L.W.

TARANAKI

Saturday the 13th May 1967 was the Installation Meeting of Tainui Lodge No. 336, Awakino, which could be aptly described as one of the outposts of Freemasonry in Taranaki.

Bro E. V. Foreman S.W. was installed in to the chair of K.S. by R.W. Bro J. C. Taylor Provincial Grand Master for Taranaki before an excellent attendance of brethren from throughout the province.

After the official part of the programme the brethren adjourned to the Awakino Hall to join their Awakino brethren at the festive board. This part of the programme was disposed of with celerity and decorum and the ladies who had been responsible for preparing the supper were invited to join the brethren in a social evening. Under the capable direction of W. Bro John Murray the evening passed all too quickly and the thanks of the visitors go to Lodge Tainui and their ladies for providing such an entertaining evening.

It was pleasing to welcome V.W. Bro Paddy Tanner P. Grand Lecturer and his good lady back to the Taranaki fold.

An interesting third degree was worked by Lodge Hinemoa No. 786 S.C. at their recent May meeting when all Masonic Constitutions were invited to take part in the ceremony.

An interesting feature of the evening was the part that Bro J. H. Childs of Hinemoa Lodge was attending his 74th Anniversary Meeting in Masonry, a record of which he should be justly proud.

The getting together of the Constitutions in this manner speaks well for the harmony existing between all the brethren in Tuarua.

It can well be said that they never grow old. On Wednesday the 24th May 1967 Lodge Ngamotu No. 48 New Plymouth initiated a brother and during the ceremony Brother Harry Mace gave the charge after investiture. No doubt to many not a difficult assignment, but when it is remembered that Bro Mace is now in his 97th year and has completed nearly 57 years in the craft. ' made the journey to Lodge Tainui for the installation on the 13th May 1967.

Lodge Moa No. 110 Inglewood has recently suffered two losses by the sudden passing of W.Bro. F. J. Hodges and Bro. J. H. Eversfield.

W.Bro Hodges was initiated in Lodge Moa on the 9th June 1911 passed 14th July 1911 and raised on the 11th August 1911. He was installed as Master of Lodge Mon in 1934 and was always a helpful and enthusiastic member of the Lodge. Frank was also a member of the Royal Arch Chapter and had passed through the offices of Egmont Chapter No. 37 which he joined in October 1915. He attained the Grand Chapter Rank of Past 3rd G. Soj and was the holder of the 50 years jewel in the craft and the 40 year service medal plus bars in the Chapter.

Bro J. Eversfield was initiated into Lodge Moa only in recent years and had enjoyed his connection with the brethren in this short time.

To the families of these brethren we extend our sincere sympathy in the sudden loss of their husbands and fathers.

The Turuturu Royal Arch Chapter No. 55 Hawera held their installation on Monday the 15th May 1967 when Ex. Comp Albert Randolph Creagh was installed as Z. by R.Ex Comp. C. H. Strombom G. Supt. and his Grand Chapter Officers.

Also present was M. Ex. Comp. J. D. Hyde Grand "Z" and Grand Chapter Officers.

Opportunity was taken at this meeting to present to R. Ex. Comp. F. J. Young P.G. Supt. his 40 year service jewel. In a few well chosen words Most Ex. Comp. Hyde outlined to those present the various activities in which R.Ex. Comp Young had been concerned and thanked him for his services to Masonry both in the Chapter and other branches of masonry before presenting him with his jewel.

Our Ex. Companion in reply thanked the companions for the presentation and also referred to the difficulties experienced in attending Chapter in the earlier years.

During the refectory proceedings M. Ex. Comp. Hyde gave a very interesting and comprehensive talk on aspects of Masonry with emphasis on the responsibilities of the Companions as Masons in the community and to carry them into effect at all times.

Lodge Sir Donald McLean No. 1646 E.C. conducted their Installation Meeting at Waitara on Saturday the 3rd June 1967 when W. Bro. J. M. Orchard was inducted as W.M. for the second year, in the presence of R.W. Bro Thomas .V. Anson, Grand Lodge Officers and a good attendance of brethren and visitors from Sister Constitutions.

WELLINGTON

WELLINGTON LODGE No. 1521 E.C.

'Freemasonry in the Modern World' is the title of an inspiring lecture given by Worshipful Brother C. Stuart Perry at the regular monthly meeting of Wellington Lodge held on Wednesday, May 17, 1967. Brother Perry has kindly supplied the following precis.

"The Lecturer invited the Brethren to consider the idea of the Craft entertained by the outsider today, contrasted with ideas which had been current at earlier periods. He referred to impressions held by the 'man in the street,' and to secular publications and actual pronouncements of various religious sects: in some cases today, former hostile attitudes showed signs of being relaxed.

On the question of the decline which is often alleged in religious conviction, he suggested that the younger generation is intolerant of precept of any kind, wants to take little on trust, but to find out for itself and formulate its own standards and practices and conventions. These may be different from our own, may not conform to the principles we have looked to as authoritative, but will nevertheless be those of the generation concerned, sincerely held and forming an ethic for the future.

The Craft, as a conservative institution might, during the transitional stage have little appeal, and indeed losses of membership and attendances all over the World made it appear that this was possible.

To counter this some Grand Lodges have embarked on publicity and even a modified form of solicitation; solutions which have not commended themselves to any Grand Lodge operating in New Zealand.

Until the picture became clearer — until it was apparent how radically social change was affecting the Craft and how far the Craft might have to abandon its conservatism to make those allowable changes which would retain it as an organisation acceptable to those whom it wanted as members without impairing its identity, the only guide for the individual was to be found in the current teaching of the Craft. On this topic this was to be found particularly in the words of the address to the Master— ". . . so that one is said to be a member of the Craft the world may know . . . etc."

In other words, the knowledge that Freemasons were men of compassion, good will and principle could be relied on to ensure that the Craft was a respected and valued institution whatever changes occurred in society itself."

NELSON & MARLBOROUGH

A highlight of the May meeting of Waimea Lodge No. 266 in Nelson, was the presentation of a 50 year service jewel to V.W. Bro. H. G. Shakes, P.G.L. In making the presentation, Rt. W. Bro. E. C. Shuttleworth, Deputy Grand Master, congratulated V.W. Bro. Shakes on his long association with Freemasonry, during which he had been very active in his service to the Craft.

He was initiated on 5 February 1917 in Leinster Lodge No. 44 and raised on 4 June 1917 and was a member for 15 years. In October 1932 he joined the Plunket Lodge No. 163 and was installed as Master on 11 April 1940. In February 1949, V.W. Bro. Shakes joined Waimea Lodge and is edit active and a regular attender.

SOUTHLAND

Lodge Taringatura experienced a mild invasion on the occasion of the installation of Bro. W. A. Coombes at Lumsden, recently. When the Provincial Grand Master entered the Lodge room, accompanied by 36 of his G. L. Officers, he beheld a sight which must have been most pleasant even though he could see problems ahead so far as the ceremonial work was concerned.

Twenty-six Masters of lodges throughout Southland and South Canterbury, which was represented by six of the total, were seated in the East and over another 50 Past Masters were seated among the brethren. The Board of installed Masters totalled 76, plus 37 Grand Lodge Officers, quite an appreciable gathering for a country lodge. And in spite of the crowded lodge room all went very well indeed. Now quite capable of rising to any occasion in Lodge work V. W. Bro. Bruce Sutherland excelled himself in the masterly manner in which he carried out his duties and the praise-worthy comments passed were well earned. It was a pleasure for all who attended the function and it looks as if Taringatura is rising to again be the supreme country lodge in Southland.

Lodge Winton, No. 103, suffered an extremely severe loss quite recently when W. Bro. "Ned" Eastlake, P.G.B.B. passed to the Grand Lodge above after an illness which had persisted over a period of some months. An obituary contributed by the Lodge will no doubt find its way into these columns but it is felt that occasion should not pass meantime without some reference to the passing of a W. Bro. who was beloved by brethren throughout the Dominion. His passing came as a severe blow and the least that can be said is that he will be sadly missed.

Another well known Secretary, W. Bro. E. J. Leach, Lodge Mataura No. 174, is a patient in hospital, at Kew, Invercargill and it is pleasing to record that he is making excellent progress as a result of the skilled attention by the members of the medical staff. It could hardly be said that he is favourably inclined to taking a spell for a month, in hospital, on account of his heart condition but he is already showing signs of "settling in." The good wishes of his brethren and a host of well wishers are extended to him.

The W. Master of Lodge Waihopai No. 189, had a very enjoyable and somewhat rare experience recently, in fact it is so rare that it is doubtful if any other presiding W. Master has had such good fortune. W. Bro. G. M. Gray and family celebrated the 100th birthday of "Granny" Gray who resides in Invercargill with her son, the above mentioned W. Master. It was a great day and the old lady came through with flying colours. She thoroughly enjoyed herself and read the many telegrams from all over the world, from H.M. the Queen, the Governor-General and other persons of note in New Zealand. Granny even took a day off from her regular labours on the auspicious occasion. Her husband pre-deceased her only a few years ago. He was the oldest P.M. of Wairaki Lodge No. 145, Southland. During later years he and his good lady resided in Christchurch and would probably be well known in that city.

Another installation of note was that of Bro. A. B. Binnie of Lodge Southern Cross No. 9, Invercargill. Again there was a crowded lodge room and the Prov. Grand Master, Rt. W. Bro. J. A. Buckingham, had a following of 36 G. Officers among them being the Junior Grand Warden Rt. W. Bro. Jack Young. The total attendance exceeded 230, and it goes on record as being yet another most successful meeting. The constant visiting by Southland Masters no doubt contributes considerably to the large attendance of visiting W. Masters who are usually accompanied by a good following of their own members.

OBITUARY.

The memory of W. Bro. T. N. (Ned) Eastlake, P.G.B.B. will remain fresh for many years in Lodge Winton for he served so ably as Secretary from his investiture in 1942 until his death on Thursday 27th April, 1967; a period of 25 years broken only by three years war service in the N.Z. Army in North Africa, Italy and Europe.

The late W. Bro. Eastlake joined the Craft in 1927 and was initiated in Lodge Waihopai No. 189. On leaving Invercargill in 1929 he began his long service in Lodge Winton No. 108. He was installed into the chair of K.S. in 1937 and began his long tenure of the Secretaryship when he succeeded W. Bro. Thos. Walker, P.G.S. who retired after 29 years service as Secretary in 1942. It is worthy of note that Lodge Winton has only had three Secretaries since receiving the Charter in 1896.

As Secretary our late W. Bro. performed his allotted tasks faithfully, promptly and tactfully. He made himself familiar with the rules and regulations and was thus enabled to attend his duties both to his own Lodge and to Grand Lodge, much to the credit of himself and to the full satisfaction of his brethren. In his attention to charitable as well as routine matters he was a tower of strength—but was always self-effacing, patient and courteous—a very model of good order and self discipline.

His ritual work was quite out-standing in the Lodge, his diction and meaning very clear to the candidate. He was capable of delivering almost every charge in each degree without even being prompted and never hesitated to do so even at short notice. Although he was nominated for G.L. Honours many years ago he was not appointed until 1962 when he was invested as a P.G.B.B. His long faithful service was recognised by Lodge Winton in 1960 when he was presented with a Secretary's jewel and again in 1964, on the death of W. Bro. Thos. Walker, was elected as a Trustee of the Lodge.

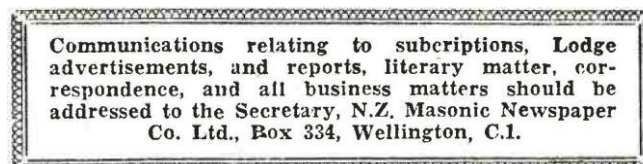

W. Bro. Eastlake served the Provincial Grand Lodge actively and was also Chaplain for the Research Lodge of Southland No. 415. At the time of his death he had almost completed a short history of Lodge Winton. At the festive board he will be remembered especially for his proposals of toasts for numberless new-born offspring of lodge members and mothers, and on social occasions for the part he played in a ventriloquist act of which nobody ever tired.

Although he gave so much of his time to freemasonry he did not neglect his own affairs. He ran a successful stationery business and cared faithfully for his wife and family. He served as a committee member of the Winton District High School and took an active part in the inauguration of the Central Southland College erected in Winton.

He was an Elder of St. Andrews Presbyterian Church and held office in the local R.S.A. His standing in the community was recognised by an appointment in 1960 as a Justice of the Peace.

The Lodge and the town of Winton have lost his valuable services but they have the inspiration of his memory. His achievements in 62 years lead one to wonder just what he would have accomplished if he had been spared for the normal span.

B.W.T., Winton.
